Headteacher's News

Due to the snow, we enjoyed a later-than-expected World Book Day. To mark the centenary of women being given the vote, my chosen costume this year is one of a suffragette from Ian Fleming's Chitty Chitty Bang Bang. Amongst the staff we also have a dragon, Underpants Wonderpants, a giraffe, a woodcutter, Skellig, Peter Pan and the Tiger who came Tea. Continuing on our reading-related theme, we are really thrilled that the vast majority of our children have now have earned at least one reading certificate this year. The richer the reading diet, the richer the writing becomes: 'Reading is breathing in, writing is breathing out.' Do come and look at the books at our Book Fair which is now in school at the back of the hall.

Thank you to the Year 6 parents who managed to get to the KS2 SATs meeting yesterday. For those of you who missed it, Mrs Westcott will put the PowerPoint on the class website page. Well done to the girls who learnt how to play chess while they waited for the meeting to finish!

Theatre Visit

We are very proud to be able to promote King's Oak's production of Oliver! The cast includes many of our past pupils and it's a cheaper way to see a live musical.

A limited number of tickets are still available if you contact King's Oak Academy.

Reception Class

We will be making eggs for Easter in the last week of term and would like newspapers and onion skins (the dry outer layer), thank you.

OoSc

We are collecting items for junk modelling (cereal boxes, tubes, foil dishes etc). Please bring any items into the school office.

Yesterday the children made ice lollies.

FOCP

Congratulations to Brody's mum who won the bottle of prosecco for answering the FOCP questionnaire.

World Book Day

Today was our book-tastic World Book Day! Thank you to parents and carers for dressing their children in some very creative costumes. The excitement and enthusiasm for reading has been clear all day - the gasps from Year 5 reading the end of their story could be heard throughout the school! The House and Deputy House captains had the additional responsibility of choosing four winners (EYFS; KS1; Year 3 and 4; Year 5 and 6). Well done to Bella-Rose, Rhys, Ruby and Liam.

Finally, please turn over to see Year 4.
