Headteacher's News

What a few days we've had! I feel very privileged to be working in a school at this special time of year; it is such a joy. As well as all of the Reading, Writing and Maths still going on right to the very end of term, we somehow have still managed to shoehorn in a number of celebratory events. The choir have been out and about singing at Clifton Cathedral and at our local Tesco Express. Both experiences were thoroughly enjoyed. We are very lucky to have our dedicated Mrs Castle who I have discovered can both play in the cold and while standing up.

Our infants are all looking pretty shattered after two evening performances of 'It's a Baby'. I was so proud of them all with their clear singing, loud voices and lovely smiles. It was super to see their confidence – no tears except from the audience. Thank you to all of the Infant staff team who made it all happen. Next week is looking equally as busy. Hopefully, I will see a lot of you at our Christmas Fayre tomorrow.
